CORAM : DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.

29th August, 2005.

P.C. :

Having perused the reasons contained in paragraph 7 of the order of the Learned Trial Judge and the interim order of the Additional District Judge dated 1st November, 2004, no case for interference is made out against the purely interlocutory finding. The Petition is rejected.

However, having regard to the facts of the case, it would be necessary in the interests of justice to expedite the trial of the suit. The Learned Trial Judge is requested to dispose of the suit as expeditiously as possible and in any case within a period of three months from the date on which an authenticated copy of this order is produced by either of the parties before the Court.

All contentions of the parties on merits are kept open.
